Crafts | Active Games | Behavior Management | Quiet Games
Nature Activities | Outdoor Games | Group Leader 101

Crafts – Staff from Tarpon Springs will demonstrate how to plan and create “spe-shell” crafts for summer with several fun hands-on projects to make and take.

Active Games – Games, games and more games. The crew from Clearwater will teach games that can be played indoors or out. Get on your seahorse and get ready to play!

Nature Activities –The staff from Dunedin will present ways to incorporate some “turtley awesome” nature projects into your summer camp lesson plans.

Behavior Management – The staff from Largo will give participants behavior management techniques that they can use to tame those prickly urchins.

Outdoor Games –The staff from Pinellas Park will go over fun games and outdoor safety tips for all the buoys and gulls in your group.

Group Leader 101 – Leading a group can be a lot like herding catfish! The staff from Seminole will provide leadership tips and suggestions to help you lead your group without losing your mind.

Quiet Games – FiShhhhh It’s time to wind down, lower the volume, and still have fun with the super stars from Safety Harbor.
