As a participant, we want you to enjoy your time at this event. We ask that you join us in encouraging and maintaining the highest professional standards possible at all functions within this event. Attendees, presenters, vendors, and staff at FRPA events are expected to conduct themselves at all times in a courteous, professional, and respectful manner. Attendees are required to abstain from behavior that reflects poorly on their agency, the Florida Recreation and Park Association, and the membership. Such conduct includes, but is not limited to, actions disrupting the businesslike atmosphere, harassment, discrimination, inappropriate language, failing to comply with all local, state, and federal laws, and activities that endanger self and others. While we do not anticipate these challenges, we do want to be transparent regarding our commitment to assuring a safe and enjoyable environment for all event participants and let you know that misconduct will be addressed with you individually and/or with your employer. Attendees, presenters, vendors, and staff who do not comply with this code of conduct at any event may be removed from said event and barred from attending all future FRPA sponsored or co-sponsored events. For more information please review the following webpage: frpa.org/conduct. By registering for this event/activity/workshop, I give permission and consent to allow photographs and video to be taken during activities sponsored by the Florida Recreation and Park Association (FRPA). I further give permission and consent that any such media may be published and used by FRPA and its agents, to illustrate and promote the association and its programs. I understand that it is my responsibility to communicate with FRPA if I do not wish to be photographed or videoed.
